Immigration Act 2006 - §113. Exemption from requirement to hold a visa.

(1) The following persons shall be exempt from the requirement to hold a visa to enter the Republic, to such extent or subject to such conditions as specified by this Chapter or by regulations:

- (a) subject to section 133(3), a person who is for the time being entitled to any immunity from jurisdiction by or under the Diplomatic Privileges and Immunities Act 1988;
- (b) a person who is for the time being entitled to any immunity from jurisdiction by or under the International Organizations Immunities Act 1974, or is brought to the Republic by the Government of the Marshall Islands under any assistance program of the Government of the United States of America, or any other country under any similar program approved by the Minister;
- (c) a citizen of the United States;
- (d) a citizen of Palau or the Federated States of Micronesia;
- (e) United States contractor personnel and their official dependents;
- (f) a member of a visiting force including its civilian component, and the crew of any craft used to transport them to the Republic while members of that force are in the Republic at the request or with the consent of the Government;
- (g) a member of the crew or a passenger on any cruise ship or private vessel carrying passengers between any foreign place and the Republic, who will remain in the Republic for less than 7 days, commencing on the date on which the ship or vessel first arrives in the Republic;
- (h) a member of the crew of any commercial aircraft flying between any foreign place and the Republic, who will remain in the Republic for less than 14 days, commencing on the date on which the aircraft first arrives in the Republic;
- (i) a person who is under employment contract to enter into the service of the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands;
- (j) a member of the official staff or household of any person referred to under subparagraph (a); or
- (k) the spouse or any dependent child of any person referred to under the foregoing subparagraphs (a) to (i).

(2) Except as otherwise directed by the Division, all exempt persons under subsections 1(a), 1(b), 1(c), 1(d) and 1(e), 1(i) and 1(k) must present the following documents before being issued with a permit to enter the Republic:

- (a) a valid medical certificate showing clearance from HIV/Aids or tuberculosis or any other contagious disease as notified by the Ministry of Health from time to time; or
- (b) a police clearance showing that the person does not have any criminal conviction for an offence punishable by imprisonment for a term of 12 months or more.

(3) Notwithstanding the exemptions granted to persons in subsection (1), exempt persons will be subject to immigration clearance procedures upon arrival and departure from the Republic. Exempt persons shall be refused entry into the Republic if they are found to be ineligible for an entry permit under section 114 of the Chapter .
